This is my Father's
world,
and to my list'ning ears

All nature sings
and round me rings
the music of the spheres.

This is my Father's
world.

I rest me in the thought

Of rocks and trees,
of skies and seas,
His hand the wonders
wrought.

This is my Father's
world.

The birds their carols raise.

The background of the image is an aerial photograph showing a vast, undulating landscape. The surface appears to be covered in clouds or water, with a complex, textured pattern of light and dark patches. The lighting is warm and golden, suggesting a sunrise or sunset, with the light source positioned towards the upper right, casting a glow over the entire scene. The colors range from deep blues and greys in the shadows to bright yellows and oranges in the illuminated areas.

The morning light,
the lily white,
Declare their Maker's
praise.

This is my Father's
world.

He shines in all that's fair.

In the rustling grass,
I hear Him pass.
He speaks to me
ev'rywhere.

The background of the image is a high-angle, aerial photograph of a vast, textured landscape. It appears to be a sea of clouds or a field of water, with a warm, golden-brown light source, possibly the sun, creating a strong glow and casting long, soft shadows. The overall tone is serene and majestic.

This is my Father's
world!

O let me ne'er forget

That tho' the wrong
seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.
