This Is My Father's World

This is my Father's
world,
and to my list'ning ears

All nature sings
and round me rings
the music of the spheres.

This is my Father's
world.

I rest me in the thought

Of rocks and trees,
of skies and seas,
His hand the wonders
wrought.

This is my Father's
world.

The birds their carols raise.

The morning light,
the lily white,
Declare their Maker's
praise.

This is my Father's
world.

He shines in all that's fair.

In the rustling grass,
I hear Him pass.
He speaks to me
ev'rywhere.

The background of the image is a high-angle, aerial photograph of a vast, textured landscape. It appears to be a sea of clouds or a field of water, with a warm, golden-brown light source, possibly the sun, creating a strong glow and casting long, soft shadows. The texture is highly detailed, with many small, rounded mounds and valleys, giving it a three-dimensional appearance. The overall color palette is dominated by warm tones of gold, brown, and dark blue/black in the shadows.

This is my Father's
world!

O let me ne'er forget

That tho' the wrong
seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.
