The background of the image is a high-angle, aerial photograph of a vast, textured landscape. The surface appears to be covered in a dense layer of clouds or water, with a warm, golden-brown light illuminating the scene from the upper right. The light creates a strong contrast, highlighting the ridges and valleys of the cloud layer. The overall mood is serene and expansive.

This is my Father's
world,
and to my list'ning ears

All nature sings
and round me rings
the music of the spheres.

This is my Father's
world.

I rest me in the thought

Of rocks and trees,
of skies and seas,
His hand the wonders
wrought.

This is my Father's
world.

The birds their carols
raise.

The morning light,
the lily white,
Declare their Maker's
praise.

This is my Father's
world.

He shines in all that's fair.

The background of the image is a close-up, high-angle photograph of dry, golden-brown grass. The grass is in sharp focus, showing individual blades and their texture. The lighting is warm, suggesting a sunset or sunrise, with a soft glow over the grass. In the lower-left corner, there is a dark, shadowed area, possibly a rock or a patch of soil, which provides a contrast to the bright grass.

In the rustling grass,
I hear Him pass.
He speaks to me
ev'rywhere.

An aerial photograph showing a vast, textured landscape of clouds or water. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, likely from a low sun, creating a shimmering effect on the surface. The colors range from deep blues and greys to bright yellows and oranges.

This is my Father's
world!

O let me ne'er forget

That tho' the wrong
seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.

This is my Father's
world.

The battle is not done.

Jesus who died
shall be satisfied
and earth and heaven
be one.
